Libertarians of New Hampshire!

This year, real Libertarians are on the New Hampshire ballot!

Ken Blevens for U.S. Senate

John Babiarz for Governor

Philip Hodson and Howard Wilson for Congress

Steven Couture, Lisa Wilber, and Brendan Kelly for State Legislature

And this year, your Libertarian State Chair Rich Tomasso made a wish.
He wished that someone should start a PAC to support your candidates.

I'm here to give Rich Tomasso his wish!

Except I already had the PAC! And your State Committee trusts me enough to let me mail you.

Had Enough?
For Real Change
Vote Libertarian!

Support our candidates! It's important!

If Ken Blevens or John Babiarz earns 4% of the vote,
New Hampshire Libertarians earn major party status.

Major Party Status? Instead of spending time petitioning, you'll spend your time building a libertarian majority. Instead of spending your money on ballot access, you'll spend it on outreach, like the free LPNH trifold I enclose.

I've done this before for New Hampshire. Now I'm doing it again!

In 2008, your state party chose me as a candidate. I said 'send money to my campaign, and I'll buy campaign signs for all our Libertarian candidates.' You came through, and my campaign paid for hundreds of signs →

And I bought internet ads, too: I ran more than 1.8 million Google Adwords ads, and 1.4 million Facebook ads, all in New Hampshire, all pushing our Libertarian message. That message worked!. In 2004, Ken Blevens got 9,835 votes for US Senate. In 2008 Ken ran for Senate again. In 2008 he got 21,516 votes. That's twice as many! We didn't make all the difference, but we made a difference.

Had Enough? Now comes the next step.
This year, you have a choice. This year, let's show voters that we Libertarians are serious
Vote Libertarian! about politics.

This year, let's show voters Libertarians are not a one-man flash-in-the-pan like Ross Perot. Let's show voters we're here to stay until we win. This year, we may not win every voter. But every voter will know we are in the race.

Let's reach out to young people, the future voters of America, with our message. The theme?

Vote Libertarian!

Let's give our Libertarian candidates a campaign we can all be proud of. Let's give them a full-scale pedal-to-the-medal internet campaign!

Why Internet? Why Facebook and Google Adwords

- Facebook reaches young people
- Google AdWords reaches all across New Hampshire
- Facebook has no startup costs.
- Google Adwords targets educated voters, the people who will listen to us

And, most important: Most Americans are totally turned off by Democratic and Republican politicians. They're looking for real change.

What better messenger of real American change than the people's medium, the internet?

Of course, you should have two questions:

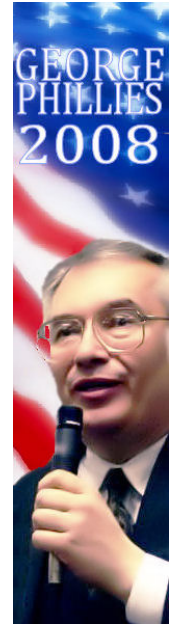

#1) Where is my money actually going? I promise you: From your first dollar through the door, a majority of your money will go to real advertising. We're an all-volunteer operation. We don't have expensive offices, overpaid consultants, or a huge payroll. Your money will go to real politics.

(Yes, we have some expenses. This mailing costs a few hundred dollars. We have a list of donors, and will invest to reach them. We must file with the FEC. Nonetheless: A majority of every donation goes to advertising. Once our actual expenses are covered, every penny you send will be spent on advertising.)

#2) Why are you doing this for New Hampshire? Very easy! I owe you. In 2008, your state convention gave me the highest honor an American politician can receive. You made me your nominee, and put me on the ballot. I'm returning your favor.

Yours for Liberty,

George Phillies

P.S. If you donate at least $10, I'll give you a free gift. The free gift is an electronic file with either of my novels. The One World is 'the three musketeers invade the kingdom of the Amazons'. Minutegirls is libertarian science fiction. To get the gift I need your email address.

P.P.S. Donate by September 20; get both novels as free gifts.
